NXTG3N SPORTS

NIL Contract and Usage-Rights Checklist

Printable action plan for Athletes, families, and business partners

How to use this checklist

Work through each action item before accepting or activating an NIL opportunity. Add the people responsible, supporting links, dates, and open questions. Revisit the checklist when circumstances or terms change.

Core action items

- [ ] Verify the legal names, authorized signers, dates, and notice contacts.
- [ ] List every service, deliverable, deadline, approval, and revision.
- [ ] Separate athlete services, identity rights, and content ownership.
- [ ] Define media, term, territory, editing, paid use, AI use, and takedown.
- [ ] Review exclusivity, conflicts, cancellation, morality, and dispute terms.
- [ ] Save the presented version, signed copy, approvals, invoices, and results.

Decision prompts

Which rights continue after the campaign ends?

Notes: _____
_____

What happens if schedules change or either party cancels?

Notes: _____
_____

Which terms require qualified legal or compliance review?

Notes: _____
_____

30-day follow-up

- [ ] Facts, contacts, and source links are current.
- [ ] Required reviews, reports, and disclosures are complete.
- [ ] Agreements, approvals, payments, expenses, live links, and results are saved.
- [ ] Media kits and audience metrics show a measurement date.
- [ ] The next action and responsible person are documented.

Campaign or opportunity record

Opportunity / partner
Primary contact
Decision deadline
Deliverables and dates
Compensation / expenses
Usage and exclusivity
Review contacts
Results review date

Important educational notice

This checklist provides general educational information only. It is not legal, tax, financial, eligibility, compliance, investment, or contractual advice and does not guarantee an opportunity, compensation, audience growth, or campaign result. Rules and guidance change. Confirm current requirements with the athlete's school, team, association, parent or guardian when applicable, and qualified legal, tax, or financial professionals for the specific circumstances.

Read the complete guide and official source links at nxtg3nsports.com/resources.